Dear parents/carers

As you may well be aware, yesterday at school we had a highly unusual incident to deal with and can I firstly thank you all for your co-operation. I am pleased to advise you that the police have now arrested the suspects.

I would like to reassure you that critical incident plans are in place and we were extremely pleased with the response by the vast majority of our students during what was a challenging situation.

The police were at school first thing this morning to provide some reassurance for parents and students and they will be at school again at 3.00 pm today.

Once again, thank you for your understanding and co-operation.

Yours faithfully
