

3rd February 2017

Dear parents/carers

As we draw close to the end of my first half term at One In A Million, I would like to thank you all for such a wonderful and supportive welcome.

The school has started to go through a real metamorphosis and this is as a direct result of the positive and constructive feedback that parents, staff and students have shared with me.

The parent forums have been hugely successful, with areas being raised and focused on including:-

- Behaviour and expectations
- Attitude to learning
- Vulnerable students support
- Extended learning (homework)
- Student's progress and challenge

As I explained in my meetings, I would very much like to hold an evening parent forum for all parents to attend so we can share with you the actions we are focusing on.

The next parent forum will be on Tuesday 21st March 2017 and I hope that you will be able to join us to discuss the points even further.

On another note, I am informing you that the school will be closed for an additional day of INSET training on Monday 27th February and will open on Tuesday 28th February as normal.

Finally, due to exam preparation and assessment there will be no Monday boost curriculum for the next two weeks. The Monday boost curriculum will re-commence after half term, the first one taking place on Monday 6th March due to the inset day now scheduled for Monday 27th February 2017.

Yours faithfully
